A ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.—The restoration to the stage of the old play of "Valerie," in which Mademoiselle Mars obtained such success as the blind heroine, has been occasioned by the immense interest thrown around the marriage which took place a short time ago, at the new Russian chapel in the Rue de la Croix (says the Paris correspondent of the Court Journal.) Strange is every incident connected with this union, and strangest of all, that each one should be almost identical with those of the play. The young Princess [illegible], who had become suddenly blind from the effect of exposure to the sunlight upon the snow, had been sent to Dusseldorf to consult the great oculist of that place, and after having followed his treatment for some time, and been pronounced curable with great care and patience, and a warm climate, had been conveyed to Palermo, where she was deriving benefit from the doctor's prescriptions, and regarding herself as in a fair way for recovery, when a cold, caught by imprudently sitting on the grass, brought on inflammation, and drove her once more to despair. Of course the doctor was immediately applied to; he advised the patient remaining at Palermo, but proposed to dispatch one of his pupils, on whose attention he could rely, to watch the disease and report daily on its progress. The young man arrived, and was soon installed in the family as its most valuable member. His attention was unremitting—his exertions to please unvarying. The princess gradually recovered the hope she had lost, and was once more pronounced so near perfect restoration to sight that the young pupil, according to the directions of the Professor, was commissioned to escort her back to Dusseldorf, for the benefit of the advice and experience which could facilitate and complete the cure. The journey seems to have achieved the conquest begun at Palermo, and, by the time the young doctor and his patient had arrived at Dusseldorf, a greater anxiety than that occasioned by the uncertainty of the return of sight had taken possession of the young princess, and was shared by her medical attendant. It was a case of great delicacy, and one in which the Professor had staked much of his future fame; and he had called together a great number of his brother partitioners, and the entire class of his pupils, to be present on the day when the bandages were to be finally withdrawn from the eyes of the patient. The interest of the moment was so great that it was almost considered a solemnity, as the Professor, surrounded by his friends and the students of the place, proceeded to loosen the back band which held the bandage. A cry of delight escaped from the lips of the Princess as the daylight first broke upon her gaze. She glanced wildly round the assembly, and in one moment, despite her still weakened sight, seemed to scan every countenance turned with such interest towards her own, then without an instant's hesitation—as if impelled by a magnetic power stronger than herself—she walked across the room towards where the young doctor, her friend and companion, stood, silent and trembling, concealed behind the rest, and, taking his hand, pressed it to her lips, and, forgetting all beside the gratitude she owed him, burst into a passion of tears! Needless to say to what degree the emotion was shared by him in whose favor it had been displayed. It will not be necessary to declare how much, at first, all further progress of this attachment was opposed by the relatives of the princess; but it may be as well to record the stoutness and determination with which she has pursued the happiness she has undertaken, and on Monday last she was united to the young doctor at the Russian Chapel, while in the evening "Valerie" was played at the Theater Francais, and Mdlle. Tordeus, who played the heroine, was loudly applauded by an enthusiastic audience, few of whom imagined that the very scene which so moved their pity had been enacted in real life but a short time before.

A LINE OF BATTLE.—This expression often occurs in referring to the order of troops on the battle field, and it is doubtless the opinion of many that the two armies stand in two lines, but it is not so.

The army is divided into two divisions, and there are often great gaps between the divisions. They are posted in positions or in commanding places—that is, on hills or in woods, or on the banks of streams, in places where they will be best able to resist or attack the enemy. The divisions are usually so placed that they can support one another. You can understand a line of battle pretty well by imagining a regiment here on a hill, another down in the valley, a third in a piece of woods, with artillery and cavalry placed in the best positions. If you want to make it more real, when you are out in the fields or pastures, with the hills all around, just imagine that the enemy is over yonder hill, with ten thousand men and twenty pieces of artillery. You are a General and have an equal number. The enemy will come down that road, spread out into the field, or creep up through the woods and attack you.

You can't exactly tell how many men he will send on the right or how many on the center or how many on the left, so you must arrange your forces to support each other.—Then, to shift it, you are to attack him. You don't know how his troops are arranged, for he keeps them concealed as well as he can. You don't want many of your men killed but do want to win a victory. Now there is a chance for you to try your skill in planning a line of battle. You must place your artillery where it will do the most damage and receive the least from the enemy. You must move your infantry so that they will not be cut off by the enemy before they get near enough to eat them up in return. You see that it is no small thing to be a General. These are great responsibilities.—Scientific American.

GUARDING REBEL PROPERTY.—A Huntsville (Ala.) correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat gives the following sad result of guarding rebel property.

A wealthy widow having been very much frightened by a number of soldiers creating a disturbance near her dwelling, asked of Gen. Mitchell a guard to be stationed at her house. It was granted, with the request that she would board the guard while there, which she agreed to do. In the short space of four weeks the guard and widow were man and wife. Others in the neighborhood have followed her example, but to the detriment of the army, as the men left the army in compliance with the request of the lady before marriage.

Oregon State Fair.

We are nearly at the end of the Premium List of the State Agricultural Society and will now close our extracts and remarks upon it.

Oregon is famed for her fruits. The greatest display ever witnessed in the State we expect to see at Salem Fair.

Class VIII.—Fruits, Flowers, Plants, Designs, etc.

No. 40.—Fruits. Apples.—Greatest number of varieties grown in 1862, 8 dollars. Greatest number of good varieties and best specimens, correctly named, at least 3 specimens of each, 7 dollars; 2d do, subject to the same rules, 5 dollars. For the best 20 varieties and best grown and correctly named, 3 specimens of each, 4 dollars; 2d do 3 dollars. For the best 12 varieties correctly named, 3 specimens, 3 dollars; 2d do 2 dollars. In arranging the fruits on the tables, the Autumn and Winter varieties must be in separate groups, for the convenience of both judges and visitors.

Pears.—Greatest number of good varieties and best specimens correctly named, 3 specimens of each, 7 dollars; 2d do. 4 dollars. For the best 20 varieties, best specimens and correctly named, 3 specimens, 4 dollars; 2d do, 3 dollars. For the best 12 varieties and best specimens, 6 of each, correctly named, 3 dollars; 2d do 2 dollars. For the best 6 varieties and best specimens, correctly named, 6 specimens each, 2 dollars; 2d do 1 dollar. In arranging the pears on the tables, exhibitors will be required to place the Autumn and Winter varieties in separate groups, and so marked, and Autumn varieties in another, for convenience of both judges and visitors.

Peaches.—For the greatest number of varieties and best grown specimens, at least 3 of each, correctly named, 4 dollars; 2d do 3 dollars. For the best 6 varieties, 6 specimens of each, correctly named, 3 dollars; 2d do 2 dollars. Best 1 variety, 12 specimens, 1 dollar.

Plums.—Greatest number of varieties and best grown specimens, 6 of each, correctly named, 3 dollars; 2d do 2 dollars. Best 6 varieties, 6 specimens each, 2 dollars; 2d do 1 dollar. Best 1 variety, 12 specimens, 2 dollars; 2d do 1 dollar.

Nectarines.—Greatest number of varieties and best specimens, correctly named, 4 of each, 2 dollars; 2d do 1 dollar. Best 1 variety, 12 specimens, 1 dollar.

Quinces.—Best dozen apple or orange, 2 dollars; 2d do 1 dollar.

Grapes.—For the greatest number of good varieties and best grown specimens, 3 bunches each, 3 dollars; 2d do 2 dollars. Best 1 variety, 3 bunches, 1 dollar.

Water Melons.—For the greatest number of varieties and best [illegible], 2 dollars. Best specimen of any variety, 1 dollar.

Muskmelons.—For the greatest number of varieties and best specimens, 2 dollars. Best specimen, any variety 1 dollar.

[illegible] peck of domestic cultivated, 10 dollars, to be accompanied with a full description of the manner of cultivation, nature of soil, etc.

No. 46. Flowers.—Flowers, exhibit of rare plants, in pots, [illegible] ornamental to the hall, each 4 and 3 dollars. [illegible] Cut flowers, exhibit, 3 and 2 dollars. [illegible] each 2 and 1 dollars; Herbarium, named and [illegible] flowers, 5 and 3 dollars.

We again call upon the ladies to give attention to the following list of articles for which the State Society offers premiums. The exhibits in this department depends upon them—all, with the exception of the last article in the list, which is certainly out of place. Ladies do not make vinegar! Every thing that [illegible] from their hands possesses entirely opposite qualities. We may properly say here, too, that the Society will depend, mainly, upon the ladies of Salem and vicinity to fill the tables with the articles under the head of condiments, preserves, cake, &c. This fact must not be forgotten by the ladies of Salem.

No. 47.—Condiments, Preserves, Canned Fruits, Cakes, etc. Best canned peaches, cherries, [illegible] and [illegible] varieties, preserved quinces, apples, pears and plums, in sugar, apple, quince, cranberry and current jelly, currant wine, sponge, pound, silver, gold and jelly cake, wheat bread, (domestic) rye bread, (domestic) baker's bread, wheat or rye, cucumber pickles, tomato catsup, cucumber catsup, dried apples, peaches, plums, each 3 and 1 dollars for 1st and 2d best. Best cider vinegar, 3 and 2 dollars.

There is to be an exhibition of Lady and Gentleman Equestrianism at the Fair. It is usually on Thursday or Friday. The following is the official notice on the matter. We anticipate great display:

No. 48.—Equestrianism.—No gentleman or lady will be allowed to ride faster than a moderate gallop—running will forfeit all claim to premium. The judges are required to observe this rule strictly.

Most graceful and accomplished lady rider—ladies' saddle, bridle and martingale—value not to exceed $30; 2d do ladies' saddle, $25; 3d do ladies' riding hat, $8.

Most graceful and accomplished gentleman rider, dip[illegible]

The Society invite Essays on several interesting subject. It would be a just compliment to the Society, and a great gratification to numerous citizens of Oregon, should the Legislature make provision for publishing, in book form, the official acts of the Society at the State Fair, and the Essays which are approved by its publishing committee. This is done in other States. Why should it not be in ours?

Geological.

Mr Hall of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary, has returned to our city, after some days absence on a geological excursion for the Smithsonian Institute. He has been appointed to make a report on the Eastern parts of Oregon and Washington, whence he expects to return in a few days.

The country over which he is to travel is full of geological interest, as we can see from the numerous specimens of mineral which he has shown us, selected by him on his late flying trip to the Clearwater and Lapwai. He has shown us pieces of strong gray limestone found on the Lapwai about eight miles above the Agency, with some beautiful specimens of dark variegated marble, susceptible of a high polish. Various specimens of quartz containing both gold and silver. One piece which is estimated to be worth $30,000 per ton; this specimen was furnished him by the Agent at the Reservation, Mr Hutchins, and to have been discovered on Miller's creek above Florence. Many of the specimens which Mr. Hall has secured are rich in metals. Iron, copper, silver and tellurium, are found combined and giving a metallic luster to the stones, and also a high degree of magnetic power. Plumbum and galena appear among the metals, and also some specimens of cinnabar. We noticed a variety of fossils, among which was one bivalvular shell, changed into limestone on one side and sandstone on the other. Marble and granite appear among his collection, and we are told that vast ledges of these valuable stones are found at the beginning of the Bitter Root mountains.

Our country has always [illegible] abundantly supplied with mineral resources and there is no doubt but Mr. Hall will find an interesting field for exercising his knowledge of minerals and geology in which he has spent much time in study and experiment. We hope the time will soon come when our young State will have a provision made for a resident geologist whose duty it will be to expose the mineral [illegible] and numerous mountain ranges [illegible] is known to be extensive [illegible] of revenue to us. We have the promise of a series of articles for our columns descriptive of our Eastern border and the [illegible] features of the section of country over which Mr Hall is to travel.

From the Upper Columbia

The following items are from the Lewiston Golden Age.

New Discoveries.—We learn from good authority that the new diggings struck on the mouth of News creek where it puts into Clearwater, twenty two miles this side Elk City, will pay from $10 to $20 a day to the hand. Two of the gulches also are very rich. Other diggings on the Clearwater in that locality will pay far more richly, when the miners get to work.

Jas Riley, Mossman & Co.'s Express messenger from Oro Fino on the 2d, informs us that rich diggings have been discovered near the headwaters of Oro Grande creek, about 4 miles northeast of Oro Fino. The gold is coarse, and prospected according to a statement made by Mr Bassett, who had just arrived in town, as high as $4 to the pan.

Still further discoveries are made known in a letter written by Mr Edward Harris at Oro Fino, July 28th, from which we have permission to take the following: "We are in the midst of a great excitement in regard to new mines that are supposed to have been struck 100 miles from this place, and the miners are leaving at the rate of 2 or 300 per day, with the prospect of nearly depopulating the place in two or three weeks. We shall know more about them by the next Express, and I am getting in a situation so that I can start as soon as I have positive information on the subject. Letters have been received privately by parties in this town that I can depend on, that it has been struck very rich—20 to 60 cents a pan from top to bed rock."

Important Quartz Discoveries.—About ten days ago a miner reached town with several specimens of gold bearing quartz exceedingly rich and very peculiar in appearance. He took a portion of his specimens to the assay office, and they yielded at the rate of $40,000 to the ton! From Judge Shrively of Astoria, we learn that a remarkably rich quartz vein has indeed been struck, between ninety and one hundred miles beyond Florence on the extreme north branch or fork of Salmon river. The exact location is kept secret. Mr Shrively says it is the richest quartz he ever saw. The party having the specimens was the original discoverer of the lode, and has gone to San Francisco for machinery with which to crush the rock.

Pony Express.—Mason J Haggard, formerly one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messengers, and a gentleman of indomitable energy and perseverance, is now in Lewiston making arrangements to establish a regular Pony Express to and from Fort Benton, Mo. The entire distance going and returning—over nine hundred miles, he expects to accomplish in fifteen days!

One of the deck hands of the Okanagan was drowned on her last downward trip a short distance below the Pelouse Rapids.

Treasure.—Upwards of $200,000 in treasure went down yesterday by the Tenino.

The following items are from the Washington Statesman of August 2d.

Gold Mines on Burnt River.—We learn from Mr Burnett that reports had reached Auburn, prior to his departure from that place, on Monday last, that good paying gold mines had been found on Burnt River, and that a number of miners were preparing to start immediately for the new diggings.

New Gold Mines Near Oro Fino.—We learn from Oro Fino that considerable excitement prevails at that place on account of the discovery of gold mines, about thirty miles distant, on Rock Creek, a tributary of Clearwater. The gold found there is coarse, resembling that obtained on Rhodes Creek. The diggings are reported to be rich, though but little is known other as to their richness or extent. A general stampede for the new diggings was taking place at Oro Fino when our informant left.

New Style of Gold.—Some of the miners up Salmon somewhere, not satisfied with their usual enormous yields of gold, have become still more avaricious, and have struck a "good thing" in the shape of yellow sand which they are mixing with their gold and "playing" on the uninitiated.

A ditch ten miles long, capable of carrying a thousand inches of water, is nearly completed at Florence.

Wells, Fargo & Co., shipped seventy one thousand dollars in gold dust to Portland on Monday.

A Disgraceful Affair.—We were told yesterday evening that an outrageous affair occurred the night previous near the corner of Washington and First streets in which two white men had an altercation with two Indians, resulting in stabbing of both Indians, one of whom has since died and one white man slightly cut. The difficulty is said to have originated from disgraceful treatment of the squaws of the Indians alluded to and the parties concerned, doubtless, should be severely punished. A partial trial of the case was heard before the City Recorder last evening, but owing to the absence of the City Attorney or any proper person to prosecute the case, the Recorder was reluctantly forced to discharge them. We learn however, that one of the parties has been re-arrested by the City Marshal, and a more thorough investigation of the case may be had to day.

Oregon Fruit.—We acknowledge a present of a quantity of wild raspberries from Mr W. P. Watson but we are sorry to say that no cream accompanied the delicious fruit, as the pesky cows didn't come up night afore last. However, we enjoyed the gift with many thanks. But the most important fact connected with this item is, that one of the berries measured three inches in circumference which we judge cannot be easily beaten in any country producing wild raspberries.

Lively.—Our city was quite lively yesterday, and our streets crowded with strangers, many of whom were from Victoria and the Carriboo country and others from the upper Columbia, en route for San Francisco, per steamship Sierra Nevada.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to July 28th.

[illegible] July [illegible]—Dates from the [illegible] July 28th—The President issued a Proclamation [illegible] than the contemplation of the sixth section of Confiscation Act to [illegible] particularly in aiding, countenancing or abetting the rebellion and to return to their allegiance to the United States under pain of seizure and forfeiture [illegible] within and [illegible] completed.

A [illegible] arrived at Philadelphia [illegible] they were well treated [illegible] Mississippi and Congress were especially kind in their treatment.

United States [illegible] were eagerly taken by rebels. Baltimore notes were also taken by the rebels but looked upon with distrust.

New York, July 27.—Chaplain [illegible] Excelsior Brigade has [illegible] Harrison's Landing from Richmond. He says two iron clad gunboats are being built at Richmond similar to the Merrimac, and that great [illegible] Generals [illegible] Magruder is [illegible].

The rebels lately received large quantities of arms from England.

The Times correspondent [illegible] the army of the Potomac says nothing will be done until we are fully reinforced. The need of [illegible] reinforcements is pressing.

Correspondence from Banks army states that forward movements are impeded by [illegible] on Hel[illegible] river.

Steel scarps [illegible] six miles from Little Washington.

Nashville, July 26.—The 10th Ohio Regiment guarding the Memphis and Charleston Railroad near Courtland were attacked by a large guerilla force [illegible] killed and damaged [illegible] communication.

Col Forrest [illegible] at Carthage, Tenn [illegible] supposed [illegible] making a descent on Louisville.

Nashville, July 27.—The commanding General at Memphis issued an order prohibiting speculation and payment for produce in specie in rebel States where Treasury notes are refused. Persons will be arrested and such of their crops as are not needed for the sustenance of their families will be seized and sold by the nearest Quartermaster.

Commodore Porter of the mortar flotilla has arrived at Washington. The Navy Department has learned that the [illegible] fleet recently captured the Tubal Cain, a large iron clad steamer off Charleston, trying to run the blockade. She was heavily laden with arms and ammunition.

Fortress Monroe, July 26th.—We are credibly informed that a large rebel force is being concentrated on James river above the junction of the Appomattox and James river.—This comes from Richmond by way of Petersburg railroad, believed to be 50,000 or 60,000 men under the command of Jackson.

A band of rebel cavalry came down (like a wolf on the fold) on Gloucester Point and seized and carried off a lot of contrabands, also forced into the rebel army all males capable of bearing arms, and then set fire to ship timber. The rebel cavalry are daily prowling about that region seeking plunder and pressing everybody who can be of service to them.

A rebel mail carrier was arrested with 2000 letters in his possession for persons in Richmond.

A steamer from Port Royal reports all quiet on the South Carolina and Georgia coast.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible]

"THAT LAIE."—Our readers will please excuse the following reply to an article which appeared in yesterday's Times relative to the city patronage of the OREGONIAN—as we shall have to present a few plain facts for the benefit of readers at a distance who may accidentally see the article in question, and who may not be as well acquainted as the people of this city are, with the unenviable reputation which a certain lying braggadocio sustains, who does the "blowing" for that establishment—and to prevent a mistake as to who we mean we will state that this individual is familiarly known as "Bill Andrews the —." We are well aware that this individual did not write the article alluded to, as he is known to be an ignorant ass, and could not put two sentences together correctly if it was to save his miserable life; but as he has found a ready tool who has performed the dirty work of clothing his brazen assertions with some degree of syntactic symmetry, we shall reply to it as coming directly from this full grown fanfaronade.

In reply to his allusion relative to "Esq's toall," we simply say—that we hope never to swell to such lying proportions as he has long since attained, nor sink to such depths of depravity and universal contumely as he occupies. It comes with much coolness for him to talk about truth—as such a thing has long since parted company with him, and he never enjoys the privilege of telling facts except by merest accident.

As to betting on the comparative circulation of the OREGONIAN with the Times, we would simply remind this Andrews that he had first better pay his debts, as he will then find that he has less money to "sport" with. It sounds rather bad to hear a loud mouthed fool proferring to bet on this or that, to any amount, while scores of creditors are within hearing distance who have long waited for their pay, and would gladly dispose of their accounts against him for 10, or at most 25 cents on the dollar. We are not on the "sport," but should we ever be induced to stake money on our faith in the above matter, we will first state that the transaction must be with a gentleman. We respectfully decline dealing with this man Andrews any further,—that his statement concerning the same is not to be taken as amounting to the weight of a straw. Nothing short of a personal canvass of the city will convince us that we are in error as to which paper has the greatest circulation. Now if any respectable gentleman, who considers himself a friend of the Times, really desires to squander a sufficient sum to pay us for canvassing the city, he can probably be accommodated by calling upon us within a reasonable time.

There now, we have done with this matter, and we only desire again to ask the pardon of our readers for burthening our columns with such a personal subject; we should not have done so at this time, had it not been that this man Andrews has never allowed a week to pass without endeavoring to weaken in some disgraceful, contemptible and underhanded way, the prospects and general patronage of the DAILY OREGONIAN.

ARRIVAL OF THE HUNT.—The Wilson G. Hunt arrived yesterday afternoon from the Cascades at 3 o'clock, with 85 passengers and a considerable amount of dust—$75,000 by Wells, Fargo & Co., and twelve hundred ounces by Mossman & Co.'s Express. There was also a large amount in hands of passengers. The news from the upper country is still quite flattering, and prospects good for continuance of rich yield of mineral wealth. We are indebted to Mossman & Co. for a copy of the Walla Walla Statesman, and for the first number of the Golden Age published at Lewiston, August 2d; also to Wells, Fargo & Co., for similar favors. The most important items from these papers will be found in another column.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—The iron clad screw steamer Leviathan arrived at our city yesterday morning, and went flying, screaming and kicking past the several wharves like a thing of life, resembling a scared rabbit. The Leviathan is to be immediately put on the route from Portland to the Cascades, carrying freight, passengers, &c., for Mossman & Co.'s Express. From the glimpse we obtained while passing an open spot opposite our office, we should judge that her speed will fully equal most of the steamers on this route, and far exceed any in proportion to size and weight. Success attend the Leviathan, as we are well satisfied that she is no "sardine."

A PHILOSOPHICAL FACT.—Great minds will occasionally agree upon certain subjects, let the route by which they arrive at the conclusion be ever so wide apart at the start. A proof of this is furnished in the avidity with which the Times copied the squib of the Advertiser relative to the OREGONIAN. But there is another fact which we cannot account for by any known rules of logic or science, to wit: That whenever Andrews gets drunk he is sure to beg a certain gentleman to write leaders for "my paper," and when sober, (?) calls this same person a rank secessionist and traitor. We would be pleased to see this question satisfactorily answered by our cotemporaries, if they can.

ARRIVAL OF THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The Sierra Nevada arrived this morning about four o'clock. We are indebted to the purser for the following memoranda and passenger list:

MEMORANDA—The steamer Sierra Nevada, Capt. Thomas Huntington, left San Francisco July 28th at 4 P.M. Left Victoria August 2d, at [illegible] o'clock P.M.

PASSENGERS—Mrs Kennedy, Mrs Machy, Mr G [illegible], Mr Chopdur, Clark Lane, J C Lyon, J Rosenfeldt, Mr Whitcomb, Mr Shuldar, Mr Parker, Mr Adams, Miss Wright, J Harper, W Irvine, Mr Pritchard, Fillmore, [illegible], Mr Bern, (Wells, Fargo & Co's m[illegible]) and 7 in the steerage.

The Sierra Nevada will sail this evening, at 7 o'clock, direct for San Francisco.

BEFORE THE RECORDER.—Tuesday August 5th, two chaps by name of Watson and Jones were arraigned for disorderly conduct and trial set for 9 o'clock to-day.

Walch and Ludwig were arraigned for violent and disorderly conduct in a row with two Indians on the evening previous, but for want of proper evidence were discharged.

John Coppola,—violent and disorderly conduct, fined $10 and cost—paid and defendant discharged.

FOSSIL REMAINS.—We were shown yesterday by Mr. G. C. Robbins the petrified remains of a large mud turtle which were found in digging a well in Powell's Valley. It was entirely whole, even to the extremities. Our devil says that it was a "blard" found stone dead, in a well.

LAID UP.—We learn that the steamer Vancouver is laid up for a few days undergoing repairs. The Rival will ply on her route until the repairs are made.

THEATRE.—The performance at the Willamette Theatre last night was very good, each character being well personated, and to the satisfaction of the audience, which was quite large and respectable. By reference to advertisement it will be seen that Mr John Wood takes a benefit on to-morrow, Thursday night, upon which occasion we doubt not an excellent programme will be given, and we bespeak a crowded house, as Mr. Wood has fully sustained his reputation as an excellent artiste and deserves commendation by all who have attended the Theatre during his performances in this city.

FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION AND Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE
SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a strong lock stitch alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.
It should be able to use cotton thread or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved needles being liable to break.
The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.
It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.
It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two shades of cloth to be united.
It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch and to run easily, and make but little noise.
It should have a wheel feed—no others are in constant contact with the work.
It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.
It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.
It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.
If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.
If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.
If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.
If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.
If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

A WOMAN OF GOOD TASTE.—You see this lady turning a cold eye to the assurances of the shopmen and the recommendations of milliners. She cares not how original a pattern may be, if it be ugly, or how recent a shape, if it be awkward. Whatever laws of fashion dictates, she follows a law of her own, and is never behind it. She wears very beautiful things which people generally suppose come from Paris, or at least, made by a French milliner, but which is often bought at the nearest town and made up by her own maid. Not that her costume is either rich or new; on the contrary, she wears many a rich dress, but it is always pretty, and many an old one, but it is always good. She deals in no confusion of gaudy colors, nor does she affect a steady sobriety; but to see either refreshes you with a beautiful contrast, or composes you with a judicious harmony. Not a scrap of tinsel or trumpery appears about her. She puts no faith in velvet bands, or gilt buttons, or twisted cording. She is quite aware, however, that the garnish is as important as the dress; all her inner borders are delicate and fresh; and should anything peep out which is not intended to be seen, it is quite as much so as that which is. After all, there is no great art, either in her fashions or her materials. The secret simply consists in her knowing the three grand unities of dress—her own station, her own age and her own points. And no woman can dress well who does not.—After this, we need not say that whoever is attracted by the costume will not be disappointed in the wearer. She may not be handsome, nor accomplished; but we will answer for her being good tempered, well informed, thoroughly sensible, and a complete lady.

THE ROAR OF THE SEA.—Whilst the sea is yet unseen, it makes itself felt and heard. At first, there is a distant, dull monotony of sound; and, gradually, this far-off murmur swells into a roar which absorbs and dominates all other voices.—At once the attention is arrested by the solemn alternation, the invariable return of the deep low note, even swelling into thunder. Not so regular the oscillation of the pendulum which measures the hours. But very far in its regularity from being like the uniformity of mechanic motion. We feel in it, or, rather, belive we feel in it, the vibrating intonation of life. In fact at the moment of the flood, when wave rises upon wave, immense electric, there mingles with the rolling storm of the waters the murmer of the shells and the thousand various beings which are borne along with them in their course, and at the reflux of the waves, there is a sound which makes us comprehend that the sea carries back with the sands these, its faithful tribes, and receives them into her bosom. Wherever one may behold the ocean it is ever imposing and terrible.—Such is it around headlands, from which it spreads far away in all directions; such, and sometimes even more so, it is vexed and trammelled by enclosing shores, and where it rushes in with furious currents which hurl it high upon the rocks.—In such situations as these its infinite expanse is wanting; but the spirit of its infinity is ever present still; without a visible sign, it makes itself felt, and even the more powerful for having none.

A MISTAKE.—A young man, whatever his situation in life, should have such a proper respect for woman, that he will not readily entertain presumptions in reference to her, either gratifying to his vanity or injurious to that delicacy of character with which refinement and education have invested the sex. Because a young woman in the frankness and vivacity of disposition, does not look upon a man as if he were a beast of prey, it does not follow that she has conceived for him a special predilection. But some young men are preposterously self-conceited, and fancy they have only to be seen to be admired. If they knew the kind of admiration they excite, they would soon think themselves small even in their own estimation. The man who denies to women the faculty of shrewdness, is always in danger of coming to grief, for his egotism is liable at any moment to be helplessly transfixed by the brightest pair of eyes that ever belonged to a Xantippe. All the slights and affronts that men put on the common sense of women are sure to be revenged in one way or another.

RICH SOIL—RATHER.—The editor of the American Stock Journal, says—"We are told, too, a good story, which is no doubt true, of a man who was actually sued and made to pay damages in a court of law in Iowa, within the last two years, for leaving a quantity of manure on another's garden! The offender had hired a stable and kept several horses, and deposited the manure upon a neighboring lot used as a garden. The case was tried before a judge recently from New England, who was satisfied by the evidence, that the land was rich enough without the manure, and that the manure caused a great growth of weeds, which made far more labor necessary to cultivate the crops!"

REMEDY FOR RINGWORMS—The North British Agriculturist says that a disease locally known as ringworm or tetter, which shows itself about the head and neck of young cattle, in the form of whitish dry scurve spots, can be removed by rubbing the parts affected with iodine ointment. The disease may also be combated by the use of sulphur and oil; iodine ointment is however to be prefered. As this skin disease is easily communicated to the human subject, the person dressing the cattle should wash his hands with soap and hot water after each ointment.

PRUNING A CLIMBING ROSE.—In pruning a climbing rose, all the very strong and vigorous shoots of last year should be preserved, and all weak and decayed ones, as well as old shoots exhausted by abundant flowering, should be cut away. It should also be an object to get good strong shoots as low down towards the root as possible, as the finest flowers, coming from the strongest shoots, are thereby equally diffused over the plant.

☞ There is no funeral so sad to follows the funeral of our own youth, which we have been pampering with fond desires, ambitious hopes, and all the bright berries that hang in poisonous clusters over the prime of life.

☞ A roaring tornado, unroofing houses, and uprooting forests, may be less calamitous than a low whisper from the lips of a malicious woman.

☞ Heaven commissioned justice to reward and to punish; but she has forgotten the first half of her lesson, and repeats the other half badly.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D. Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the suffer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found, to my sufferers, at to horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be the result.
B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed,
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 7d, 1856.
Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks since I called at your institute, with my constitution as I thought broken entirely, and now I am [illegible] thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to stop the [illegible] and strengthen my [illegible] so that I would not [illegible] at everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those [illegible] from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] to stop [illegible] of those [illegible], which you said were principally the cause [illegible] sickness. I can hardly tell you what is the greatest joy [illegible], for except not having fully got my strength [illegible] well as any man on foot.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. I [illegible] this, as [illegible] will be benefited, you can put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HARDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly and from causes unknown to me was seized with fits of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon the tedious mode of treatment, and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it, soon became such I was then led to believe to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although I still bear the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my lot, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having previously lost my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay, to tell him of my circumstances, of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to recompense him for the blessing which I enjoy at present, and yet considering it my bounden duty, I consider it due to afflicted and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical aid may find a physician in whom as my confidence can be placed.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento st., below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. ☞ Office hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

SPERMATORRHOEA, or LOCAL WEAKNESS, nervous debility, lassitude, low spirits, weakness of the limbs and back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, dizziness, headache, involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face, sexual or other infirmities in man, are cured by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon, Dr. L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success.
